The European Journal of Health Psychology strives to promote theory and practice in the analysis of psychological approaches to health and disease. The journal publishes high-quality empirical or experimental research, as well as sound practice-oriented articles, current methodological developments, and comprehensive critical reviews of the scientific literature.

European Journal of Health Psychology* publishes the following types of articles

Original Articles may be up to 52,000 characters including tables, figures, and references

Review Articles should not exceed 80,000 characters including tables, figures, and references

Short Reports (about health programs, about the development of measurement variables and alike) may be up to 16,000 characters in total

Commentaries and Book Reviews

Please note that Electronic Supplementary Material (ESM) is not included in the word count.

Manuscript Submission

Manuscripts of Original Articles, Review Articles, and Short Reports, including Electronic Supplementary Material (ESM), should be submitted online at <http://www.editorialmanager.com/zgp>.

Submit Commentaries and Book Reviews via email to the journal's Editorial Assistant, Nicole Knoblauch, at ejhp@uni.lu. Only papers that have not previously appeared in or are currently under consideration by another publication can be considered for publication. Please do not submit printed copies of your manuscript. Manuscripts are subject to masked peer review and may be returned to authors for revision. The Editor-in-Chief and the Associate Editors are responsible for the journal's editorial section.

Should you have any editorial/content questions, please contact the Editorial Assistant, Nicole Knoblauch (E-mail ejhp@uni.lu, Tel. +352 466 644-9755). Please direct any technical queries regarding the submission through Editorial Manager to production@hogrefe.com.

Manuscript Format

Manuscripts should be prepared according to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (6th ed.). Authors should follow the guidelines of the APA Manual regarding style and nomenclature. In particular, statistical and mathematical copy, as well as references and their text citations, should conform to the Publication Manual. In the reference list make sure to provide the DOIs (Digital Object Identifier) of the cited journal articles. It is recommended that authors who are not native speakers of English have their papers checked and corrected by a native-speaker colleague before submission. Standard US American spelling and punctuation as given in Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary should be followed. For further instructions please watch the APA Online Tutorial for Compulsory Reference Style on the journal's web page at www.hogrefe.de/j/zgp.

To ensure anonymous peer review, remove all potentially identifying information from the manuscript, replacing names and any indication of the university where a study was conducted by neutral place-holders. Only the title page and cover letter may contain personal information.

The Title Page of each paper should include, in the following order: title of the article; author name(s) preceded by first names, but without academic titles; name of the institute or clinic (if there is more than one author or institution, affiliations should be indicated using superscript Arabic numerals); an address for correspondence (including the name of the corresponding author with fax and phone numbers); and the author note with acknowledgments, disclosures, and funding sources.

An Abstract must be submitted (maximum length 150 words). A maximum of 5 keywords should be given after the abstract.

Figures and tables should be numbered using Arabic numerals. Each table and figure must be cited in the text and should be accompanied by a legend. Please submit tables and figures via Editorial Manager as separate files. Figures must be supplied in a form suitable for reproduction: preferably high-resolution bitmaps (e.g., tif or jpg, 300 dpi) or as vector graphics files. Figures will normally be reproduced in black and white only. While it is possible to reproduce color illustrations, authors are reminded that they will be invoiced for the extra costs involved.

Electronic Supplementary Material (ESM)

Authors may submit study data, analysis scripts, and other study materials for manuscripts that involve new data as Electronic Supplementary Materials (ESM). In general, may be files that were used to carry out the research (such as datasets) or additional items that are not essential for inclusion in the full text but would nevertheless benefit the reader. Being electronic, ESM can also include items that cannot, at this time, be produced in print form. ESM will be published online as received from the author(s) without any conversion, testing, or reformatting. They will not be checked for typographical errors or functionality. The responsibility for the content and functionality remains entirely with the author(s).

Hogrefe Publishing does not provide technical support for the creation or viewing of the supplementary files. If necessary, authors should seek the assistance of their local IT department. Like the manuscript, ESM should be original and not previously published. If previously published, it must be submitted with the necessary permissions. Note that the ESM files, just like the article itself, are permanent records and may not be altered once they have been published online.

Please ensure that any ESM submitted with the article is in compliance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Submission of ESM

ESM files will be subjected to peer review along with the article itself. The number of ESM files you submit should be limited to 10. The file size should be kept as small as possible, not exceeding 10 MB in total. All file formats are accepted with the exception of executable files (e.g., .exe, .com, or .msi). Commonly used file formats that are accessible by most readers are preferred. Following the online instructions, submit the ESM files in a single zip file separate from the other files that are part of your submission.

Citation in Manuscript

All ESM files must be referred to with in-text citations (as for tables, figures, and appendices) and should be numbered in the order in which they are cited in the text. Follow the example:

For more information, listen to the audio file in Electronic Supplementary Material 1.

or: (listen to the audio file in Electronic Supplementary Material 1) or: (the audio file is provided in Electronic Supplementary Material 1)

If appropriate, you may combine several ESM elements into a single file. For example:

See Tables 1–3 in Electronic Supplementary Material 1.

Include a section headed “Electronic Supplementary Material” at the end of your article before the reference section. List all files in the order in which they are cited in the text. Provide a title for each ESM file along with the file name. Optionally, you may also provide a short description for each file (max. 20 words). Follow the example:

ESM 1. Audio file (.mp3). (= title and file name)

This audio file contains utterances of the study participants. (= description of file)

ESM 1. Tables 1–3 (.xlsx). (= title and file name)

The tables show additional p-values, weather variables, and demographic characteristics. (= description of file)

Make sure that the file names listed here match the names of the submitted files. Please note that only the title and the description will appear in the article; the file name will not. It is for reference purposes only.

Proofs

PDF proofs will be sent to the corresponding author. Changes of content or stylistic changes may only be made in exceptional cases in the proofs. Corrections that exceed 5% of the typesetting costs may be invoiced to the authors.

Offprints

The corresponding author of each accepted paper will receive free online access to the published version of the paper when it is first released online. The author may download the PDF of the published version of record. It is provided for the author’s personal use, including for sharing with coauthors (see also “Guidelines on sharing and use of articles in Hogrefe journals” on the journal’s web page at <http://www.hogrefe.com/j/zgp>).

Copyright Agreement

By submitting an article, the author confirms and guarantees on behalf of him-/herself and any co-authors that the manuscript has not been submitted or published elsewhere, and that he or she holds all copyright in and titles to the submitted contribution, including any figures, photographs, line drawings, plans, maps, sketches, tables, and electronic supplementary material, and that the article and its contents do not infringe in any way on the rights of third parties. The author indemnifies and holds harmless the publisher from any third-party claims. ESM will be published online as received from the author(s) without any conversion, testing, or reformatting. They will not be checked for typographical errors or functionality.

The author agrees, upon acceptance of the article for publication, to transfer to the publisher the exclusive right to reproduce and distribute the article and its contents, both physically and in nonphysical, electronic, or other form, in the journal to which it has been submitted and in other independent publications, with no limitations on the number of copies or on the form or the extent of distribution. These rights are transferred for the duration of copyright as defined by international law. Furthermore, the author transfers to the publisher the following exclusive rights to the article and its contents:

1. The rights to produce advance copies, reprints, or offprints of the article, in full or in part, to undertake or allow translations into other languages, to distribute other forms or modified versions of the article, and to produce and distribute summaries or abstracts.
2. The rights to microfilm and microfiche editions or similar, to the use of the article and its contents in videotext, teletext, and similar systems, to recordings or reproduction using other media, digital or analog, including electronic, magnetic, and optical media, and in multimedia form, as well as for public broadcasting in radio, television, or other forms of broadcast.
3. The rights to store the article and its content in machine-readable or electronic form on all media (such as computer disks, compact disks, magnetic tape), to store the article and its contents in online databases belonging to the publisher or third parties for viewing or downloading by third parties, and to present or reproduce the article or its contents on visual display screens, monitors, and similar devices, either directly or via data transmission.
4. The rights to reproduce and distribute the article and its contents by all other means, including photo-mechanical and similar processes (such as photocopying or facsimile), and as part of so-called document delivery services.
5. The right to transfer any or all rights mentioned in this agreement, as well as rights retained by the relevant copyright clearing centers, including royalty rights to third parties.
